COMMEMORATIVE COIN FOR WALTHER VON DER VOGELWEIDE.

A commemorative coin for the 700th anniversary of the death of Walther von der Vogelweide has just been issued in Germany.

The obverse shows Vogelweide seated with a scroll and "Walther von der Vogelweide. 1930." The reverse has the German eagle in a shield and "Deutsches Reich. Drei Reichsmark."

Redden

Mr. Martin Spink showed a barbaric gold coin imitating an aureus of Marcus Aurelius having on the reverse a bust, probably of a Teutonic king.

Rev. E. A. Sydenham exhibited an extensive collection of denarii in illustration of his paper.

Mr. Sydenham read a paper entitled "L Calpurnius Piso and the Coinage of the Roman Republic During the Social War." The Marsic War, which broke out early in B. C. 90 and came to an end by the autumn of the following year, seriously imperilled the Republic and taxed its resources to the utmost. The abnormally large coinage necessitated by the war was issued mainly by L. Piso, and his coins give evidence of hurried production under disturbed conditions. Their main interest lies not so much in the occasion of their issue as in their elaborate system of mint-marks, which indicate the order in which his coins were issued, and throw some light on the working of the

Dear Sirs:

Please forward to us the following:

1 - 5 Mk piece 1930 Rheinland Mint State Mk.7.--

We are withholding payment on your bill of July 19th for Mk. 9.85, till the above item is received, at which time a remittance for the whole will be forwarded. This is due to the fact that either item is too small to make separate payments.

Very truly yours,

Assistant Curator.

Dear Sir:

We are in receipt of the package with the coins. We are sorry that we are obliged to return the gold five-franc piece of 1813, as we already have this date. This leaves the sum of 4.90 Mks. owing to you which we shall hold till there is another payment due you, this sum being so small.

Very truly yours,

Curator.

Dear Sirs:

If you still have on hand the following two pamphlets, will you please send them to us.

Die Goldmunzen des Deutchen Reiches, 1871-1918	Mks. 2.50
Dr. K. Rossberg: Die 2, 5 and 3 markstuck, 1919	2.50

We should also like to have you send us, if you can procure them easily and sell them cheaply, a selection of the Nuremberg Munzmeister jetons - that is, those pieces with the man seated at a table on one side, and the alphabet on the back.

Thanking you for your courtesy,

Very truly yours,

Curator.
